Philadelphia Mint,

I see in the Watchman, taken from the Philadelphia Call, these words Old Copper Cents Issued 1817. I have two big copper Cents of your Description 1817 they are well difend and are all right I see they are the rarest in the coin Collection. I will let them go for a good large price, for I can keep them in my bank know small sum will draw them. I have other Old coins some are Silver and some are Copper I two half cents date 1806 & 7 I think that these are thyer date I have one large cent with words on it John Anderson Iron Manufacture 1790 of Penn.

I enclose a stamp Please write and make me an offer for I have the very two copper cents As I have said they can be bought of me for a large price know small one

Superintendant of Philadelphia Mint:

Sir -

An item in the "Phila Call" led me to address you stating that among the rarest of the curiosities at the Philadelphia Mint were "two big copper cents of the year 1817" What would be the value of duplicate? I have one upon which the date (1817) is clearly discernable. I should like to sell the coin & would like to know what it is worth.

hoping to be favored with a response & awaiting your pleasure

I am respectfully

Mrs. E. Williams
Huntington West Va.
